UTAH

SALT LAKE June 7 —The laying of rails of the Utah Southwestern Railroad commenced yesterday Brigham Young driving the first spike in the presence of a large concourse of citizens

The Herald and its "Friends"

The Herald and Salem Mercury are at it "hammer and tongs" Recently the Mercury published an article relative to railroad men and matters, to which the Herald retorted in an angry vein The following are the principal portions of the Mercury's article

For the past week the Herald has been occupied almost exclusively with the private affairs of Ben Holladay. We regret to witness in a Democratic journal a disposition manifested to ignore all else and run a tilt against a private individual Of course if the Herald is intended by its proprietors as simply a personal organ, to represent only those who own and run it, why it has the right to make war upon any individual or any thing being amenable to the law for the abuse of such privilege But why hunt Holladay down? Whatever else he has not done, he has identified himself with us to the extent of building a railroad It is true, that no citizen of the State is under any very particular obligations to Mr H for this If he had not seen profit in the undertaking he would not have engaged in it, but the press of the State as well as the people owe it to Holladay that he at least be placed upon an equality with other men pursuing other callings among us What would be thought of the Mercury should it wage a war against the Commercial Hotel Company in Salem or against Mr Myers who is engaged in the erection of an extensive manufacturing establishment in this city which will prove a public benefit, and though Mr Myers is not embarking his capital in the enterprise with a view solely to the promotion of the interests of the Salem public, he is yet entitled to immunity from insult and assault equally with others of the place—no more no less Again Oregon's interests and development now depend to a greater extent upon Mr Holladay's success than upon that of any other man The work he has inaugurated is yet uncompleted Whatever embarrasses him retards our material progress If Mr. Holladay has been unfortunate, or culpable for that matter, in his dealings with Mr Elliott it is yet none the less patent that he is of us in all of our present railroad projects and interests, he holds the key to the position, and is thus enabled to make his defeat our defeat Then it were madness for us to promote our own defeat and discomfiture It is not meet that the people of Oregon should interfere in the suits pending between Mr Holladay and Mr Elliott either way, and it is certainly suicide to interfere against the former in the hope of defeating him The commonest dictates of self preservation of State pride should incline the people of Oregon to hope for the best in behalf of Mr Holladay * * * * *

The campaign over and the session of the Legislature past, Mr Holladay bowed gracefully to the result, made the most of his achievements and proceeded to the prosecution of his railroad enterprises The Mercury, as was the duty of all other papers then ceased opposition to him To oppose him further was not only in bad taste but absolutely indefensible and mischievous

However much we may desire to see Mr Elliott receive full and ample justice in the issues pending between himself and Holladay, we cannot close our eyes to the fact that Holladay's discomfiture and embarrassment is Oregon's calamity Viewing matters thus we cannot but deplore the existence of any disturbing cause as against Mr Holladay

More South Carolina County Officers Threatened by the Ku Klux.

[From the Columbia (S C) Union May 23]

The murderers belonging to the mystic order known as the Ku Klux seem to have come to further conclusions regarding some of the citizens and county officers of Darlington county. We have received intelligence that on Friday night last a large notice, embracing the names of the county officers and of the Postmaster, was posted up on the front of the postoffice, but was torn down early in the morning by the town marshal Saturday morning the following named officers received notices, similar to the one sent to Mr Lunney, appended hereto These notices were orders to resign their positions forthwith and were directed to John Lunney Jonathan Wright County Treasurer John G Guthrie Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners Clayton Cannon County Commissioner, Jordan Lang and Samuel Keith Representatives to the General Assembly James M Brown Jr, Judge of Probate and J S Fillebrown County Auditor

The order to Mr Lunney, the Postmaster, is as follows

GERMANY AND FRANCE

PRINCE BISMARCK ON THE PEACE OF FRANKFORT

Prince Bismarck made in the German Parliament on May 12th, the statement following,

On the conclusion of the preliminaries of peace hopes were entertained that the labors of the Conference which assembled to settle the final terms of the treaty would be terminated in a month or six weeks This expectation was founded on the belief that the French Government would enjoy undisputed authority in France but this hope was not realized A longer delay in the conclusion of a definite peace would have given rise to a fear as to whether the French Government would remain in a position to fulfill its obligations As regards the cession of territory, the object at stake was already in our hands and there could be no doubt of the arrangements in this respect being carried out The apprehensions that were entertained concerned the question whether the Government would be inclined and able to accomplish the conditions relating to the war contributions Serious anxiety upon this point caused me to try the effect of a personal interview with the French Ministers If we had not come to an agreement, the German Army would have occupied Paris, either by an arrangement with the Commune or by force, and thereupon we should have required the French Government to withdraw its troops behind the Loire, and then resume negotiations I only went to Frankfort with the intention of obtaining the settlement of a few pending questions—namely the payment of the war contributions, the shortening of the delays and the strengthening of the guarantee But as it became manifest that a prospect existed of finally concluding peace, I considered that that result would be a gain for both countries as Germany would thereby be able to lessen her military burden and France would achieve consolidation The French Government is in the best possible position to meet the views of the people of France for a restoration of peace Any other Government that might attempt to take its place would be suspected of not wishing to make peace equally secure It is true, there will be some supplementary provisions necessary respecting the carrying out of the treaty, still a definite peace is now achieved The terms for the payment of the war indemnity have been shortened the first half milliard will be delivered within the thirty days following the occupation of Paris by the Versailles Army. With regard to the mode of payment, it has been settled that only specie or notes of safe banks either English, Dutch, Prussian or Belgian, will be accepted or first class bills The second payment amounting to 1,000,000 000, is to be made in the course of this year, namely, by the end of December Not till then are we bound to evacuate the forts before Paris The fourth half milliard has to be paid by the 1st of May, next year With reference to the payment of the last three milliards the stipulations of the preliminaries of the treaty of peace will be adhered to, and the payments will be concluded by the 1st of March, 1874 The French Government hopes to be able to satisfy our requirements Difficulties arose in connection with the question of our commercial relations The French Government wishes to abrogate the treaty of commerce, and appears to expect to obtain by that proceeding an increase of customs receipts I contented myself with obtaining for us the rights accorded to the most favored nation By the most favored nations we understand England, Belgium, the Netherlands, Switzerland, Austria and Russia With regard to the frontier question it was decided not to understand 'the Rayon of Belfort' in its technical significance, but to extend it by four or five kilometres It appeared desirable to acquire some German Communes near Thionville, together with Rellinger This the French Government declared itself unable to grant I therefore proposed to leave the question of ratification to the National Assembly, and I offered, in lieu of that territory, a further cession of territory round Belfort The remaining conditions of the treaty will be seen from the document itself which will be published very shortly We have acquired for a certain sum of money the portion of railway in Alsace and Lorraine which belongs to the Eastern of France Company A delay of ten days, namely, till the 20th of May, has been agreed upon for the ratification of the treaty by the Emperor of Germany and the French National Assembly Prince Bismarck concluded as follows 'I believe we have obtained from France all that we could reasonably expect We have rendered our frontier safe, and we have insured the payment of the war indemnity as far as is humanly possible More extensive demands would have entailed great sacrifices I have every confidence that the French Government intends to carry out the provisions of the treaty and that it will have the power so to do The belief that it will not be possible to raise the large amount of the war indemnity is not shared by the French Minister of Finance I entertain the hope that the peace which has been concluded will prove lasting and full of benefit, and that we shall not for a long time have to make use of the guarantees we have retained to secure ourselves against renewed aggression '

Yellow Fever in Buenos Ayres

OVER TWELVE THOUSAND VICTIMS—THE PESTILENCE STILL RAGING

MONTEVIDEO, April 15th, 1871

The black wings of pestilence are hovering with sombre shadows over our neighboring city of Buenos Ayres and a population which ten weeks since numbered at least 200,000 souls is now reduced by death and flight to 40 000

Up to this date there have been over 12 000 deaths and the daily average mortality for the past week has been over 400

On Saturday last, a week ago to-day, five hundred and one deaths took place

Seven hundred and forty nine bodies were counted at the cemetery gates as the mortality bill of Sunday, and this, as in many other cases, was doubtless short of the actual number as it comprised interments only

Over 300 fatal cases were reported up to 2 o'clock P M of Monday, the total report for the day being five hundred and thirty seven

Tuesday showed somewhat of a decrease, the day's interments being only three hundred and ninety three

On Wednesday up to half past one o'clock, three hundred and three burials were registered the mortality for the day reaching four hundred and twenty-seven

Thursday witnessed a considerable diminution in the number of deaths, there being only two hundred and ninety seven—one hundred and thirty cases less than on the previous day

Yesterday according to the report of the President of the Public Commission the deaths up to 1 o clock P M were two hundred and thirteen and he expresses the opinion in his despatch that the fever is diminishing somewhat but it is a disease that varies greatly, as I will show presently

The mail closes to day before despatches complete of yesterday's deaths or of the mortality of to day can be received, but the above figures are sufficiently exact to convey a true idea of its probable extent

A new cemetery, to receive the fever victims has been opened in the campo south of the city, toward the Riachuela—the old pantheons being inadequate A tram railroad has also been laid from the city to this new necropolis, and the bodies are ... out on the trucks like so much packed freight There is no time to construct coffins or burial cases The stock on hand was long since exhausted, and the undertakers have in some instances fled from the terrible harvest of business that has sprung up

About 150 000 persons have fled the city, some taking refuge in Montevideo and the towns up the river Parana but by far the larger portion are in the campo within a distance of from ten to fifty miles from Buenos Ayres Peasants and gauchos living in miserable mud walled huts, with straw roofs have been besieged with importunate tenants from among the wealth and aristocracy of the republic and in score of cases are receiving as much as $250 to $500 per month rent for their squalid abodes Families who lived in superb style two months ago are now cowering among the huts on the plains and sleeping on beds laid upon the floor of earth —Cor N Y Herald

POLITICAL NOTES

The Maine Republicans will hold their State Convention in Portland on Thursday, June 29th, and will, probably, renominate Governor Perham by acclamation

The Columbia (S C) Union hears a rumor that counter organizations are forming in that State to meet the Ku Klux at their own game and, deprecating such a course, it appeals to the influential Democrats and Conservatives of the State, to use their personal influence to put a stop to the scenes of blood and murder, before it is too late

Alluding to ex Governor Seymour's anti greenback speech shortly before the New York Convention, the Chicago Republican goes on thus "A few days afterward a friend said to him Well, Governor, that speech has killed ... nomination' 'Yes,' said Seymour ... the chances of two men with that speech One was Horatio Seymour and the other was George H Pendleton

The agitation of the question of the removal of the capital of Illinois has given rise in some quarters to a movement for a division of the State. A writer in the Chicago ... that this talk, while amounting ... be so aggravated as to lead to a ... state of affairs and make a division between the northern and southern ... which would interfere with ... here after Governor Palmer's ... message to the Legislature, opposes the removal of the capital

Mrs Woodhull in a letter to the New York Times says "One of the charges made against me is that I lived in the same house with my former husband Dr Woodhull and my present husband Col Blood The fact ... But let him who is without sin cast the stone I do not intend to be made the scapegoat ... The Daily Oregonian

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1871.

A Soothing Mixture.

The Herald continues to make awkward exhibitions of itself in its fifteenth amendment clothes. It says in substance to Republicans: "Democrats are not such fools as to play into your hands by permitting you to make principles or platforms for them." Nevertheless, as the New York Times observes in replying to a similar declaration by an Eastern Democratic paper, that is precisely what Democrats are doing at this moment. Their new proposition amounts to this—"Let us go and dress ourselves up in the Republicans' clothes, and see if we cannot pass ourselves off for the real Simon Pure." They have tried fighting against the irresistible long enough, and now say: "It is all of no use. Let us pretend we are on the same side as the enemy." Some of our Republican contemporaries are frequently urging us to encourage this spirit in the Democrats. They think that Democrats ought to be invited on to Republican ground. So they ought—but it is all dream-land which these happy-family Republicans see before them. They might as well say, let us all sit down together and order in the millenium. The Democrats only want to float into power on Republican corks, and then they would cut loose soon enough. The great and insuperable difficulty before them is that the policy which might win them the North would certainly lose them the South. They cannot furbish up a programme which would be equally satisfactory to both sections of their party. This is what will ruin them in the Presidential contest. The terms which alone would be acceptable to the North, would be rejected with bitter indignation by the South. The leaders foresee the danger, and all their skill is now applied to the preparation of a soothing mixture, which can be offered alike to the man who fought for the Union and the man who fought for secession.

Indignant Protests.

The Oregon City Enterprise of this week contains little else than indignant protests against the change of Democratic principles as foreshadowed by the Ohio and Pennsylvania platforms. In one paragraph it says:

> We hope our Democratic cotemporaries in this State will read the last State and National platforms before they get too zealous in support of the Ohio mongrel platform. They are bound to the two former, and have nothing to do with the latter.

In another place it says that the new "mongrel platform" is "one step in advance" of the "Radical platform" of 1868, and illustrates thus

> The Radical platform of 1868 declared that the question of suffrage "should be left to the States." The Ohio platform accepts the doctrine that Congress has a right to regulate the question of suffrage in the various States. This looks to us as rather doubtful Democracy.

Further, the Enterprise tells us what the real design of the "new departure" is:

> It is evident to every observing mind that the Ohio platform has a deeper object in view than the gaining of power in that State by means of the negro vote. It is put forth as a feeler to see how the country will receive it, and if general acquiescence is obtained, it is the intention of the managers to run General [illegible] upon it as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. This is the true intent.

It takes issue with the Herald in this style:

> As far as heard from the Herald is the only Democratic paper in Oregon that has accepted the situation and taken to its bosom the Ohio mongrel platform. From a conversation which we recently had with another editor, whose Democracy the Herald questions, we infer that it will have another supporter in the "New Departure." This will make the Democratic press of Oregon stand two for the "situation," and nine against it. While these nine may be country papers, and the other two "the organs of the party," we apprehend that the nine will be taken as better reflecting the sentiments of the Democracy of this State than the two who have taken a departure after strange and dangerous gods.

In still another paragraph the Enterprise gives it to the Herald in this pungent way:

> According to the reasoning in the Herald of the 7th inst., the Radical party had committed no wrong until they passed the Ku Klux bill and invaded the States with their bayonet election law. If this position is correct, what ground had the Democracy for opposition to the Radical party prior to the passage of these laws? We can't see this matter in that light. If the amendments are taken as established facts, it is useless to quibble over the laws which have been passed to enforce them.

In its leading article the Oregon City organ says that it cannot "flop" on this "mongrel platform," and feels it to be a "duty to protest against any such innovations upon party principles as are set forth in that mongrel instrument." Further: "While the Ohio platform is adopted for the purpose of success (to secure the negro vote) it will fail to accomplish the end. The white men will repudiate such dishonest demagogism, and defeat, a most humiliating one, will be the result."

Just read the Herald and then the Enterprise on Democratic principles, and see what an interesting condition the party is in!

For many years England has been making great exertions to stimulate the growth of cotton in India, and to procure from that country a supply sufficient to make English manufacturers independent of the United States. But with the increased production in the United States since the close of our war, our cotton is taking its old position in the English market, and as a result the yield of the staple in India, in spite of all exertions, has declined. The London Times, which has been the earnest champion of Cotton culture in India as a means of assuring British independence in the matter of supply, admits that it is hopeless to attempt to successfully compete with American cotton. This admission is all the more significant because that authority never gives up a point till the last.

Our logical neighbor, the Herald, is sorely puzzled to know where in the Constitution the General Government gets power to "invade the States and punish individual offenders." The mail robbers of Eastern Oregon had this matter solved to their satisfaction, and so did the man at Salem who carried on an illegal traffic in a spirituous article which he called "Don't Care," in order to disguise it. They found by experience where the power is. It would be well if the Herald would learn that this Government is not too weak to crush States that rebel, nor too strong and great to disregard transgressions of its laws by "individual offenders."

The notable increase of emigration to Oregon is commented on by the San Francisco Bulletin. That paper says that a great majority of these emigrants, who come over by the Pacific railroad, "are respectable and comfortable farmers from the Western States, who have sold their old homesteads on favorable terms and are attracted to Oregon by the news of cheap lands, productive soil and abundant crops."

Poor France.

All serious-minded Frenchmen on both sides of the ocean admit with sorrow the tremendous decadence of France. Lemoine, of the Debats, says: "The result of the civil war will be to destroy the idea of country in the Paris where it had found a last asylum. Our fatherland no longer exists; France has suffered shipwreck. She is placed between the strangers who occupy her territory and the strangers who sit at the Hotel de Ville; between the guns on the right bank of the Seine, served by the Prussians, and those of the forts on the left bank, served by Poles, Irishmen, Sclaves, and all the Bohemianism of Europe." In the same strain writes the Courrier des Etats Unis with reference to the destruction of the Column Vendome: "The true significance of this barbarous act is accurately expressed by a single word; the Place Vendome will be called henceforth the Place Internationale. It was French, and is so no more; just as Paris is no longer French, and as France has ceased to be France. Frenchmen have a country no longer." What France needs now is a man. The inanimate image which the mad throng of Parisians insulted in the Rue de la Paix, might have inspired some one, it would seem, with at least a portion of the courage and spirit of Napoleon. If any Frenchman had possessed a hundredth part of the great captain's genius, in the supreme hour of dismay and humiliation, how would the mob of fanatics have been scattered like chaff before the whirlwind!

Notice is given in the OREGONIAN this morning of the time and manner of holding Republican primaries preparatory to the city election. The City Republican Committee have suggested a method which we think will be deemed satisfactory by all Republicans. It is time to begin to wake up to this work.

OREGON.

The old emigrant route over the Cascade mountains known as the Barlow road, is now open for travel.

It is stated that the prospect for a large yield of flax in some of the upper Wallamet counties is good. Six thousand acres were sown last fall.

From the Statesman: We learn from Mr. Pettyjohn that the shooting match for a span of horses did not come off, as promised. Tothero paid him the $25 forfeit and did not risk the ponies. They did shoot for a small purse of money raised on the spot and Pettyjohn won it, making four center shots out of five at 40 yards.

The work of laying the foundation for the new penitentiary will not be fully completed before the 1st of July. Besides the stone used 600,000 brick are required for the foundation, and when that is finished the mason work of the whole will be nearly half completed. The walls will probably be up ready for the Mansard roof about September 1st. All the other work is going on satisfactorily. So says the Statesman.

A post of the Grand Army of the Republic was organized at Salem, Wednesday evening, June 7th, by C. P. Crandall, Department Commander. The post numbers twenty members, with J. M. Patterson as Post Commander, and Major George Williams, Adjutant. We learn that there are a considerable number of ex-soldiers in and about Salem, and that the post just organized has the prospect of being, soon, the largest one in the State.

THE TERRITORIES.

A Walla Walla merchant has purchased and shipped down the river 40,000 pounds of wool.

A man named Robert Smith was drowned in Snake river above Boise, a few days ago, by the upsetting of a boat.

A Salt Lake paper says that George L. Woods is moving around among the people and making friends on every hand.

A Salt Lake paper says there is to be a grand celebration of the Fourth of July in that city, with Governor Woods as orator.

Freight from Walla Walla to Wallula by teams is $6 per ton—a heavy item in shipping the products of Walla Walla valley to a market.

The Idaho World has information from Texas that a band of thirteen thousand head of cattle left the Brazos river on the 13th of April for Idaho, and it was expected they would reach the Territory the 1st of September.

The Idaho Democrat contains an account of the arrest of two men, named Joseph Sears and James Anderson, charged with stealing a band of eighteen horses and mules from Camp C. F. Smith. They were bound over in the sum of $2,000 to await the action of the grand jury.

The politicians and newspapers of Montana have commenced agitating the question of who shall be the next Delegate to Congress from that Territory. The Territorial Convention of the Republicans has been called for the last of this month. The Democrats will hold their Convention early in July. No one in particular seems to be spoken of as the nominee of the Republican party.

CURRENT NOTES.

Maine's glory as the Pine Tree State has departed, and the Portland Press complains that in the lumberman's vocabulary there has been no such word as economy.

The Court of Claims has decided the case of the New York, Newfoundland and London Telegraph Company against the United States Government, in favor of the plaintiffs for the full amount of their claims for transmitting messages during Seward's administration of the State Department.

A Michigan paper announces that one of the noble army of martyrs who face death on the flying trapeze made a miscalculation while performing at Saginaw the other night, and fell a distance of fifteen feet, nearly crushing the breath out of the talented leader of the orchestra and rendering the first violin a wreck.

Wendell Phillips says: The best school in New York to breed public opinion is not your college, nor your normal academy, nor your fashionable school. It is Judge Barnard's teaching that there is no such thing as law, while the Erie cases are before him. The lesson that sinks deepest in the heart of a Bowery boy is when he sees his court cozening the client out of his rights. He never forgets it, and when July '63 comes again in '73, perhaps he will not hang negroes to the lamp posts. He will indulge himself with a millionaire.

CITY REPUBLICAN PRIMARY MEETINGS.

The Republican voters of the City of Portland are requested to meet in their respective Wards, on Saturday, June 10, 1871, at 2 o'clock P. M., and select Delegates to attend a City Republican Convention, which will be held at the County Court Room on Saturday, June 17, 1871, at 8 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of Mayor, Police Judge, Treasurer and Assessor.

Each Ward will be entitled to Seven Delegates.

The Ward Meetings in the several Wards, will also, at the time of electing Delegates to the City Convention, nominate candidates for the Common Council for their respective Wards, as follows:

First Ward—One Candidate for the Common Council for the term of three years.

Second Ward—One Candidate for the Common Council for the term of three years.

Third Ward—One Candidate for the Common Council for the term of three years, and one for the term of one year.

The Ward meetings will be held at the following places:

First Ward—No. 2 Engine House.

Second Ward—North side of Morrison street, between First and Second.

Third Ward—West side of Front street, between Jefferson and Columbia.

Stock Books Open.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING BEEN APPOINTED by the incorporators of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad Company to open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, does hereby declare such books now open for subscription at his office in this city.

This is done now, because it was believed that the citizens of Oregon, and especially of Portland, and thence along the line of the proposed road would desire to take sufficient stock, at least to be an endorsement of the enterprise, and enable them to exert an influence in its management.

A certain proportion of the Directors are required to be residents of the State, who must first become stockholders before Directors. While the invitation to subscribe thereto is cordial, I will visit Western Oregon and Idaho during the month of July to give the citizens there an opportunity of engaging with us in the good cause.

THE UNK WEED REMEDY

OR

OREGON RHEUMATIC CURE!

HISTORY.

THIS REMEDY IS COMPOSED OF THE ACTIVE principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thaspium Cordatum Organise, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon. Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county.

It is the most sure and speedy cure for RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC GOUT AND RHEUMATIC PAINS, of all kinds that was ever introduced in the Materia Medica.

Read the following certificates of the above fact from several of the most distinguished citizens of Oregon.

Certificate from A. R. Shipley, Esq., special contributor to the Willamette Farmer, and Secretary of the Oregon Horticultural Society:

OSWEGO, OR., March 28, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA—Some four weeks ago I was entirely prostrated with Rheumatism; in fact I was almost helpless. I sent to you for one 10 ounce bottle of the "Unk Weed Remedy," by the use of which I experienced almost immediate relief; and by the time the bottle was gone the Rheumatism was gone. From my own experience, and from what I have heard others say who have used the Unk Weed, I believe it to be a certain cure for Rheumatism. Yours, respectfully, A. R. SHIPLEY.

Certificate from the Hon. A. J. Dufur, ex-President of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, and author of "Statistics of Oregon:"

EAST PORTLAND, April 1, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I was afflicted with a severe attack of Chronic Rheumatism; was confined to my bed most of the time from January to July, when I used the Unk Weed, and it cured me up. A. J. DUFUR.

Certificate from Hon. Gideon Tibbetts, a member of the City Council of East Portland:

EAST PORTLAND, April 7, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—Gents: This is to inform you that I have used your "Unk Weed Remedy" for Neuralgia and Rheumatic pains, and found relief from the use of only one bottle, and can recommend it to those in need of such a remedy. Yours, GIDEON TIBBETTS.

Certificate from Mr. James Bybee, the celebrated stock grower and "King of the Oregon Turf:"

SAUVIE'S ISLAND, January 14, 1871.

To DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—This is to acknowledge the efficacy of your "Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure." I was afflicted for months with a very serious attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism, and tried nearly all the so-called Rheumatic remedies without any relief perceivable. I then tried your Remedy, and its use resulted in the most happy effects—a perfect cure.

Truly yours, JAMES BYBEE.

Certificate from Hon. E. L. Quimby, ex-County Commissioner of Multnomah county, Oregon:

EAST PORTLAND, April 1, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy," and am satisfied it is a valuable medicine. It regulates and invigorates the system. This is my experience with the remedy. Truly yours, E. L. QUIMBY.

Certificate from Hon. N. H. Lane, Pilot Commissioner of Oregon, and a member of the City Council of East Portland:

EAST PORTLAND, April 19, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I have been afflicted for several years with "weakness in the back," and wandering Rheumatic pains, accompanied by severe constipation. By the use of one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, I have been entirely relieved, and I cheerfully recommend it as a most valuable and efficient remedy. NAT. H. LANE.

Certificate from the well-known merchant, O. W. Weaver, Esq.

THE DALLES, May 23, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I have used the "Unk Weed Remedy" and can cheerfully recommend it to persons afflicted with Inflammatory Rheumatism. It cured me of that disease. My hands, wrists, ankles, indeed, all my joints were swollen and very painful. O. W. WEAVER.

Certificate from the celebrated musician, Prof. Otto Vieuxtemps:

OREGON MUSICAL INSTITUTE,
PORTLAND, May 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—I was attacked with severe Inflammatory Rheumatism, suffering great pain, and was so prostrated that I was unable to attend to my business. I used one bottle of your Unk Weed Remedy, or Oregon Rheumatic Cure, and was entirely cured by it alone. OTTO VIEUXTEMPS.

Put up in 10-ounce bottles, at $1 50 per bottle.

CITY.

UP THE VALLEY.—One who has not, for some months, been up the valley by railroad, will be [illegible] find all along the route evidences of the [illegible] growth and improvement of the country. He will begin to find these improvements [illegible] from the moment of leaving East Portland and as he proceeds will find them multiplied and [illegible]. Even between here and the Clackamas [illegible] there are a number of new houses which [illegible] erected since last fall, and several new [illegible] up by the [illegible] where some old settler or [illegible] has started in to make two blades of [illegible] where only one grew before. At Oregon City the passenger, by the train, may observe that new buildings are in progress, that old ones have been improved and rejuvenated, and that the place wears an appearance of greater thrift than of old. The long piles of dirt and rock thrown up by the canal diggers, on the opposite side of the river, may be seen from the cars, but no accurate judgment can, of course, be formed of the state of the work, without crossing the river. Leaving Oregon City, the first appearance of improvement will be found at Canby, a railroad station on Baker's prairie. Here some one has opened a store, and two or three dwellings have been built since last fall. Aurora has been improved within the same time, not so much in the increase of houses as in the general fixing up of things. Five miles beyond Aurora is Hubbard's station, which from its situation will be a good trading and shipping point. The ground is now being cleared of the young growth of trees, and one or two nice houses are in course of erection. Gervais, located on the [illegible] of Samuel Brown, about fifteen miles this side of Salem, has sprung up, as if by magic, to the proportions of a promising village. Last November there was not a house on the spot, nor anything to indicate that there ever would be. Now there are a considerable number of stores and shops of various kinds, residences, etc. while preparations are in progress for the erection of several more. The Railroad Co. has here a fine large warehouse, and already the freight shipped from Gervais forms an important element in the business of the road. The town is situated in the heart of a large and rich agricultural district and will be the natural center of trade for nearly half of the French Prairie and the wide scope of country between Silverton and the Abiqua and Butte creek [illegible]. Being thus situated, it would seem to have a very promising future in prospect. Lots fronting the streets fronting on the railroad now sell for $75 to $100; further back, they are sold at about an average of $50. At Brook's station, a short distance this side of Lake La Biche, Mr. M. Hosford, late of East Portland, and Mr. Huley, of Portland, have opened a store with fair prospects, as we are informed. [illegible] also a good freighting station. Davenport and Wolford of Silverton, are building a warehouse, alongside the track, near the fair ground. The farms all along the road as far as Salem wear a much better look than formerly, in respect to fences, residences, outhouses, etc. The spirit of "marching on" seems to have seized upon everybody—thanks for all which are [illegible] chiefly due to the railroad builders. At Salem, business seems somewhat quiet, though it is slowly picking up a little in the last few weeks. In the way of residences, there has been much improvement. There are, however, a few vacant stores along Commercial street, vacated [illegible] by parties who have built stores of their own. It did not strike us that there is any [illegible] of the aggregate number of stores, or of the volume of business heretofore transacted [illegible] of the year. We are inclined to think that in a few months Salem will be all right again, notwithstanding the croaking of the [illegible]. It was, however, a sad mistake that the Salem people did not offer inducements for the road to run into and through the town; and it [illegible] another huge mistake, if they do not yet [illegible] change of location of the road and depot.

[illegible] LOOSE.—The old Shultz excitement [illegible] again" [illegible] about half past 4 P. M., [illegible]. Just before the express train left, a [illegible] rushing down past the depot, announcing that Shultz had escaped with a pair of 24-lb Gardner shackles on, had got across Mill creek and was at that moment supposed to be in the brush just above the depot. Instantly there was a hurrying to and fro, and such a [illegible] of arms as had not been seen since [illegible] the Knights of the Golden Circle [illegible] to be just on the point of sacking [illegible]. The excitement spread like wildfire [illegible], and in a short time there were [illegible] shotguns enough with men tied to [illegible] Shultz and hold him, too, even if he had been armed twice as heavily as he [illegible] to—with Gardner shackles. At the [illegible] the train left, the greater part of the [illegible] in the neighborhood of the supposed [illegible] making 2:40 time toward the town [illegible] their pistols, of course. The telegraph [illegible] that, at a later hour, the brush-patch had been surrounded and it was thought the notorious highwayman would not be able to make [illegible]. We trust in the strong men around [illegible]. It will be impossible for him to get away—for should he escape the [illegible] of the brush-patch surrounders, he will [illegible] in every neighborhood in the State in less than four days, and where there are so many to [illegible] must be some one who will persuade him to stop.

[illegible] FOUNDERED.—It is reported by the [illegible] on the authority of papers from Sydney, that the brig Kentucky was lately foundered [illegible] or hurricane while bound for San [illegible] to Melbourne. The Kentucky made a [illegible] port some months ago. No particulars are given, but it is supposed that all on board perished. The vessel was under command of Captain Bryant, formerly a pilot of San Francisco.

[illegible].—This vessel now discharging [illegible] at the P. T. Co's dock, brought about 700 tons of freight. She brought 320 tons of railroad [illegible] for the O. C. R. R. Co., and about 350 tons [illegible] implements to Messrs Hawley, Dodd & Co.

PORTLAND, DALLES AND SALT LAKE RAILROAD.—[illegible] announces in another column, the opening of the stock books of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad Co., and that he will call upon the citizens of Portland and Eastern Oregon [illegible].

[illegible].—The Philharmonic Society have [illegible] to give their second concert of the season on Friday evening, June 23d. An entirely new programme will be offered. The full attendance of the members is requested at rehearsal this evening.

THE "ALERT."—We learn that this steamer will be laid up on Wednesday, and thereafter till the new A [illegible] shall be ready to run, the Senator will run alone upon the route between Portland and Oregon City.

COLLISION.—Two vehicles moving in opposite [illegible] collided yesterday afternoon on Front street. The extent of the damage was a free use of some forcible adjectives by the drivers.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.—Notice is given in to-day's paper of Republican primaries to nominate Councilmen for each Ward, and to elect delegates to a city Republican Convention.

WENT TO SEA.—The bark Whistler passed over the bar to sea on last Monday. Her cargo for San Francisco consists of about 600 tons of grain, flour and lumber.

O. & C. RAILROAD.—We are informed that rails having been received, the track of the Oregon & California Railroad will be completed to Harris[burg] this week.

RETURNED.—William Beck, one among the "oldest inhabitants" of the city, returned on the John L. Stephens from an extended tour to the Eastern States.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—The new Congregational church is approaching completion, and will probably be ready for dedication by the 1st of July.

TOOK AWAY.—The steamship Oriflamme took away 156 tons of freight, consisting principally of flour, wheat and flaxseed.

AUDITING BILLS.—The entire time of the County Commissioners was engaged yesterday in the auditing of sundry bills.

TO SAIL.—The John L. Stephens is announced to sail for San Francisco on Saturday next at 7 o'clock P. M.

ARRIVED.—The bark Webfoot reached San Francisco yesterday from this port.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

REFRESHMENTS.—This office is indebted to Messrs. Alisky & Hegele for frozen refreshments, to wit: ice cream, last evening. And this, by the way, reminds us that they advertise the best arctic drinks, the best strawberries and cream, the best ice creams, etc., at their place on First street, between Alder and Morrison.

FRESH FLOUNDERS.—A small lot of fresh Flounders, received last night, for sale at Quinn's Fish Market, Washington street; also, Chinook Salmon received daily, warranted fresh.

UNION SABBATH SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Union Sabbath School picnic is announced for Saturday, the 10th inst. (to morrow). The several schools are directed to meet at their respective churches by a quarter before eight o'clock in the morning, and march from thence to the P. T. Company's wharf. The excursion boat will leave at precisely half past eight. The boat will land on the east side of the river for the accommodation of the East Portland schools at such point as they may be assembled by the East Portland committees. All provision baskets must be plainly marked, and drays will be at the respective churches to convey the baskets to the boat. By order of the Union Sunday School Committee.

NEW UNIFORMS.—Several members of the Metropolitan police force of the city appeared yesterday in the new and long commented upon uniforms. They are made of blue cloth, and with the aid of large, flashy brass buttons impart a decided military appearance to the wearer. One thing is certain, while those who compose the force are compelled to wear the uniforms there can be no impositions on strangers by false representations of authority. Several instances of this kind have occurred. These uniforms will, however, work a disadvantage by serving as an advertisement to rascals to "look sharp" and a warning to thieves of danger.

REPRIMANDED.—A young lad, whose name we suppress for obvious reasons, was arrested on Wednesday evening for throwing stones among a crowd who had gathered around the circus pavilion. He was cautioned by the officer to desist. As soon as that worthy had turned his back, the young scamp commenced with renewed vigor. He was promptly "nipped" as a young bud of promise and locked up for the night. Yesterday morning he was discharged after a fatherly reprimanding from Judge Lewis.

STREET PARADE.—The members of the Emmet Guard are requested to meet at their Armory this (Friday) evening, at 7 o'clock sharp. There will be a drill and street parade of the Company at 7:30 P. M. After marching through some of the principal streets, the Company will visit East Portland, accompanied by the brass band of that place.

ANOTHER FESTIVAL.—We are informed that the ladies of the Unitarian Society intend holding a strawberry and ice cream festival on Tuesday evening, June 13th. Due notice will be given of the place at which it is to be held.

FOUND.—A purse containing $20 in coin was picked up yesterday on Front street. The owner can have the same by calling at A. G. Walling's office and proving property.

REAL ESTATE.—A. B. Richardson sold at his auction rooms yesterday the following valuable real estate: Lot 5 in block 197, $710; lot 6 in 197, $610; lot 7 in block 197, $610.

NOT IN.—Although overdue several days, the steamer Constantine had not arrived this morning as we go to press.

SKATING RINK.—This popular rendezvous of amusement was well attended last evening.

A new invention for preserving fruits and vegetables is attracting some attention. The moisture is expelled by a cold dry process, instead of the former mode of desiccation by heat. It is said to preserve vegetables and fruits in a much more perfect and palatable state than the heating process so generally in use.

JUST ARRIVED.—D L. Stone has just received a large supply of Gold and Silver Watches of all the best patterns made, Also, Gold and Silver Chains for Ladies and Gents and elegant Opera Chains.

Also, a large assortment of the finest Jewelry and Precious Stones, Gold Headed Canes, alarge lot of Spectacles, Plate and Silver Ware, and all kinds of Clocks Mr Stone is satisfied with quick sales and small profits.

Look at the price of Clothing at the store of Kohn & Fishel Examine the superior quality of their Goods and you will be convinced they are worthy of your patronage. Coughs and Colds are often overlooked. A continuance for any length of time causes irritation of the Lungs or some chronic Throat Disease "BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES" are offered with the fullest confidence in their efficacy, giving almost invariably sure and immediate relief.

Owing to the good reputation and popularity of the Troches, many worthless and cheap imitations are offered, which are good for nothing. Be sure to OBTAIN the true "Brown's Bronchial Troches" Sold everywhere

☞ If you have a discharge from the nose, offensive or otherwise, partial loss of the sense of smell, taste or hearing, eyes watering or weak, feel dull and stupid or debilitated, pain or pressure in the head, take cold easily, you may rest assured that you have the Catarrh. Thousands annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, terminate in Consumption, and end in the grave No disease is so common, more deceptive or less understood by physicians R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., is the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy—a perfect specific for Catarrh, "Cold in the Head," or Catarrhal Headache, which he sends to any address, postpaid, for sixty cents, or four packages for $2. A Pitiful Condition.
It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease, they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow beings.
In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted
Now what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever, (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.
How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support
By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influences Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve and brain flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished

GENERALITIES.

Detroit has a bachelor's club, the members of which have sworn to marry nothing less than $20,000 and a brick house.

To appreciate the full force of the rules governing the position of words, write a man's name with "Dr." before and after it, and compare the two readings.

An attorney observed to a brother in court that he thought whiskers very unprofessional. "You are right," replied his friend; "a lawyer cannot be too barefaced."

New London (Conn.) wives are not soft-hearted. A midnight rambler there the other night counted five men asleep on as many door-steps, all with their hats on.

Twenty six thousand children are now learning music in the Boston public schools. Fifteen thousand of them are so far advanced as to be competent to take part in a musical festival.

"What is your consolation in life and death?" asked a Sunday school superintendent of a young lady in the Bible class, who blushed and said, "I'd rather be excused from speaking his name."

A fond mother in Kingston, New York, keeps an old-fashioned rocking chair sitting in a corner as an ornament, because in it she has rocked ten babies, all of whom grew up to be men, and are now living and married.

A clergyman who was lately depicting the alarming increase of intemperance, astonished his hearers by exclaiming: "A young man in my neighborhood died very suddenly last Sunday while I was preaching the Gospel in a beastly state of intoxication."

STRANGE ACCOUNT OF A GIRL WHO WAS A LIVING PIN-CUSHION.—New Lisbon, Ohio, is certainly a remarkable town for sensations. Whether this be owing to the peculiarities of the people residing there and in the immediate vicinity, or to extreme fertility of imagination on the part of local journalists of the place, we do not presume to say, but verily some strange yarns originate thereabouts. The latest and perhaps the most remarkable is the following which is from the New Lisbon Journal of yesterday. There is a family living in the east end of St. Clair township, in this county, near the State line, whose name has escaped our recollection, well known in the community as respectable people, wherein was a girl of some sixteen or seventeen years of age, apparently ill with chills and fever who gradually kept growing worse, until the doctors pronounced her disease typhoid fever but failed to cure her. And she lay ill last winter with various symptoms of disease—then dyspepsia, liver complaint, tape worm, etc. The doctors did not and could not tell what was the matter. Finally, early this spring, she took to bleeding at the lungs, with pain in her stomach, side and one leg and foot—which foot gathered at the heel and formed some matter, which the doctors opened and took therefrom about one dozen pieces of needles, and from which they have taken at different times other pieces of needles making in all twenty-four or twenty-five pieces out of her heel, and about four weeks ago one of her breasts became swollen, and upon examination was opened and several pieces of needles taken out, and one pin. And at various times lately, till there have been fifty-seven pieces of needles and four pins taken from her breast and heel. The needles appear to have been of various sizes, and generally broken in three pieces, except some of the smaller ones, which are in two pieces. She is now in comparative good health, so that she visits Smith's Ferry almost every day to have some pins or needles taken from her breast or heel. The pins are all bent as though there had been an effort to break them in three pieces, and all the needles appear more or less corroded from being in contact with the brass pins. How they got there is a mystery that no one can solve. There seems to be no doubt but that she swallowed them, but how or when no one knows, nor how many are yet to come out of her system. It is a remarkable case.—Pittsburg Dispatch, May 11th.

A MAN'S BODY DEAD WHILE HIS HEAD IS ALIVE AND WELL.—A singularly awful accident occurred on Thursday morning, near Little Falls, New Jersey, to a prominent citizen of that place, named, George Shackford. He was pitching a load of hay, standing on top, when a waver of the load caused him to lose his balance, and he fell to the ground, striking upon the back of the neck. For a few minutes he was completely senseless, but subsequently recovered as far as his head and mental faculties were concerned.

His body, however was completely paralyzed, the whole being perfectly dead below the neck utterly devoid of all power or any sense of feeling.

The unfortunate man could not control the smallest muscle, neither could he feel the touch, prick or abrasion of the flesh below the neck. He experienced no sensation of pain or physical unpleasantness. The mental agony of such a condition, however, can not be imagined.

The injured man was still in the same condition yesterday afternoon, but was failing fast, apparently dying for the want of nourishment, not being able to partake of food or stimulants. It was the impression that he would not live through the night.

Mr. Shackford was a man largely known and respected in his vicinity. Little Falls is situated in an isolated position, about six miles from Paterson.—Newark Advertiser.

LEATHER CANNON.—The Cuban patriots have invented a sort of cannon of leather as a substitute for the metal field pieces, which they are unable to obtain. The barrel of the gun is about three feet and a half long, and is made by stretching stout, well dressed leather in a soaked state upon a mold four inches in diameter, and sewing the edges with cords of native pita de corojo, which has great tenacity. When dry another thickness of wet leather is stretched upon the first layer, and four more are subsequently added. The breech is made of hard wood, and the chamber is often lined with tin. These guns fire from ten to twenty rounds before becoming unfit for use, and are usually loaded with stones through the absence of grape and canister. They have done considerable execution, and are lightly transported in pairs upon the shoulders of a man. When used, they are laid upon the ground and pointed at short range upon an approaching column.

RABBITS VS. SHEEP.—Some few years since an enthusiastic individual imported some rabbits into the sheep ranges of Australia, and, in the absence of enemies they have multiplied to such an extent that they are beginning to dispute the herbage with the great sheep herds of that country to such an extent that their extermination has already become a serious problem.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND, Thursday, June 8, 1871.

No change in New York gold quotations—112½.

Currency quotations, at this city, 89½c buying; 90½c selling.

Exchange—On San Francisco, ½ per cent.; on New York, 1½ per cent.

Telegraphic transfers—On New York, 1½ per cent. premium.

Interest—Bank rates for short loans, 1 per cent; outside rates, 12 per cent. per annum.

The San Francisco Commercial Herald of June 2d says all sorts of shifts and all kinds of tricks are resorted to in New York to force up the premium on gold. Lately some of the journals of that city, in the interest of the gold speculators, have been honoring Mr. Boutwell with a hearty growl, while others have "damned him with faint praise," because he refused to beggar the Treasury of double-eagles and enable their patrons to make a successful issue of their speculative operations. Double-eagles have become scarce in the market and are worth from ¼ to 5-16 premium. Enormous shipments of treasure have been made from New York in coin of this denomination, amounting to $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 per week, and the stream appears to undergo no diminution.

Among some of the wholesale dealers of the city we hear complaints that money does not come in as plentifully as it should in proportion to the amounts sold—one of the invariable results of a too liberal credit system. However business is not particularly retarded by such stringency.

Since fine weather has opened a new impetus has been imparted to the sale of farming and agricultural implements of all kinds. Some heavy shipments have been made during the past week in this line, and more are expected. Trade looks very bright and cheerful. As the season advances a decided increase in the demand for farming tools and implements may be anticipated. A fine crop of cereals is anticipated, and should the season prove as favorable as the present indicates, a bountiful harvest is certain. For this period of the season sales are unusually lively. There is no decline or rise in the quotations. Everything moves forward briskly and in a quiet manner.

The quotations for the retail market remain unchanged. This branch continues at its usual activity. Strawberries are appearing abundantly in the market but at extremely high rates. During the first of the week they met with ready sale at from 50 to 75 cents per pound, but are now quoted at 33⅓ cents per pound. As the strawberry season is scarcely commenced, the market will soon be flooded, notwithstanding the great demand; and the present quotations will be materially reduced. Cherries have just put in an appearance. They are sold at almost fabulous prices, but are of an inferior grade, not being fully matured.

In produce the intelligence of a serious decline in prices of wheat and flour in the San Francisco market has produced a depressing effect upon the local market, so far as shippers are concerned. However, millers and jobbers are holding at prices previously quoted.

In the drygoods line, orders for summer styles are coming in rapidly. The inclement weather during the last month materially checked the business. The present activity promises to compensate for the dullness of the past two months.

For the following San Francisco quotations we are indebted to the Herald of the 2d inst.:

BEEF AND PORK—The market is supplied from Oregon and local packers at our quotations, say: Pork, extra clear, bbls, $23; do do hf bbls $16; do mess, ℔ bbl, $21; do prime mess, ℔ bbl, $22 50. Beef, salt, in bbls, from $14 to $17 50; Smoked beef, 14. Oregon sugar cured hams, 18@20c.

In addition to these liberal supplies of meats, etc., overland, Oregon packers, as well as our own, are feeding the markets, yet prices for all keep up astonishingly well. Our dairymen are astonished at the arrivals of Eastern butter, and scarcely know what course to pursue to protect themselves.

LARD—Oregon lard in 5 and 10 ℔ tins $15@15½ according to package.

LUMBER—The Oregon and Puget Sound lumber trade is less easily controlled, and prices not altogether settled. Cargoes of Oregon rough approximate $14@15; dressed $24; spruce, $16 50; redwood, rough, $15. The mill price with cargo sales from northern ports, is $8 50@10 timber; $17 50@20 for flooring.

BRAN—With liberal receipts from Oregon prices have declined. We report sales of 3,000 sacks, Oregon, private. Mill price, $30 ℔ ton; wholesale rate, $28 from wharf.

FLOUR—During the week upward of 10,000 bbls Oregon have been received, causing considerable depression for this description.
